

Crossword Level 1

Across

3. A young female horse is called a _____.
4. A baby horse is called a _____.
6. Horses can sleep _____ as well as lying down.
8. Newborn horses can stand, and even _____, shortly after birth.
12. A _____ is a doctor that takes care of horses and other animals.
15. Horses only need a few hours of _____ each day.
16. A horse's _____ can be estimated by looking at its teeth.
18. The protein that makes up a horse's _____ is the same protein that makes up your hair and fingernails.
19. Horses have the largest _____ of any land mammals.
20. Before cars, people used _____ for transportation.

Down

1. A young male horse is called a _____.
2. Today, there are approximately 60-70 _____ horses in the world.
5. Horses are found on every continent except _____.
7. A horse's teeth take up more space in its head than its _____.
9. Horses are _____, meaning that they eat plants.
10. A person who takes care of a horse's feet (or hooves) is called a _____, horseshoer, or blacksmith.
11. Horses' eyes are on the _____ of their heads. They can see almost all the way in front and behind them.
13. A group of horses is called a _____.
14. A horse's _____ continue to grow throughout its life.
17. Horses can live 25-30 _____ on average, although some may live longer.

*Visit www.ceh.vetmed.ucdavis.edu for the answer key.